

Welcome to the Hawaii State Legislature's
PUBLIC ACCESS ROOM
LRB

A Division of the Legislative Reference Bureau

The Public Access Room is the first stop for Hawaii's citizens when conducting business at the legislature. We are deeply non-partisan. We try to maintain our objectivity in order to serve the needs of those who use our facilities and services. We provide:

Computers with Internet Access: Access Legislative and State government information, draft testimony, research legislative issues, identify and follow current measures before the Legislature.

Wireless Internet Access and table space to use your laptop when working on Legislative issues or waiting for hearings.

Photocopying of testimony for hearings or distribution to legislators.

Assistance in finding, preparing and following legislative documents and activity.

Legislative Documents: Access to Hearing Notices, Referral Sheets, Journals, and Orders-of-the-Day.

Reference Materials: Hawaii Revised Statutes, Auditor's Reports, LRB Reports, Informational Handouts, Dictionaries, and Books and Pamphlets on Effective Lobbying.

Workshops on the 'Legislative Process,' 'Useful Internet Sites,' 'Reading and Understanding Legislative Documents' and 'Tips for Tracking Bills.'

Expert Staff to provide answers and information regarding legislative matters and government affairs.
